

Verb "to be" - am; is; are

I am...	You are...	We are...

He is...	She is...	They are...

Fill in: am; is; are

1. They are pretty in those dresses.
2. I am sleepy today.
3. The new girl is very friendly.
4. You are always friendly.
5. The boy is tall.
6. Brrr, it is cold today.
7. We are busy right now.
8. My teacher is very kind.

Read the story and answer the questions.

Bonny was in a play last night. She was a queen. Bonny studied her lines each night before the play. Her mother made her a pretty dress. Bonny was nervous before the play. Soon the curtain went up. Bonny forgot about being afraid. Everyone thought Bonny was a great queen.

1. A good title for this story would be:

- a. Mother Made a Dress
- ☒ b. Bonny's Big Night
- c. Bonny Studied Hard

2. Another word for "nervous" is:

- ☒ a. afraid
- b. tired
- c. bored

3. What did Bonny do each night before the play?

She studied her lines.

4. What happened when the curtain went up?

She forgot about being afraid.

5. Did Bonny do a good job at the play?

Yes, she was a great queen.