

Lost at the Zoo

Jane and Peter have been taken to the zoo by their grandparents.

They were having such a good time feeding the lambs that they didn't notice that they had become lost in the crowds. Luckily Jane has a map of the zoo.

Answer these questions in full sentences

1. What are the children's names?

2. Who took them to the zoo?

3. What animals were they feeding?

4. What did they not noticed?

5. What did Jane have that could help them?

Look at the map and answer the following questions.

1. Where were Jane and Peter feeding the lambs?

2. What were their quickest way back to the ticket office?

3. Which animals were kept closest to the ticket office?

4. What type of sea animal would they have seen as they walked back to the office?

5. Which animals did they see sharing an enclosure with the pelicans?

6. What animals were sharing with the zebras?

7. If they had gone straight to the exit from Pet's Corner, which two roads would they have walked along?

Memo:

Answer these questions in full sentences

1. What are the children's names?

Their names are Jane and Peter.

2. Who took them to the zoo?

Their grandparents took them to the zoo.

3. What animals were they feeding?

They were feeding the lambs.

4. What did they not noticed?

They didn't notice that they became lost.

5. What did Jane have that could help them?

Jane had a map of the zoo.

Look at the map and answer the following questions.

1. Where were Jane and Peter feeding the lambs?

They were feeding them at Pet's Corner.

2. What were their quickest way back to the ticket office?

The quickest way was to take the road going left.

3. Which animals were kept closest to the ticket office?

The lions were kept closest to the ticket office.

4. What type of sea animal would they have seen as they walked back to the office?

They would have seen a sea lion.

5. Which animals did they see sharing an enclosure with the pelicans?

They saw flamingos sharing an enclosure.

6. What animals were sharing with the zebras?

The deer were sharing with the zebras.

7. If they had gone straight to the exit from Pet's Corner, which two roads would they have walked along?

They would have walked along Bird Way and Bear Road.