

Question 1:

Read the following story and answer the questions.

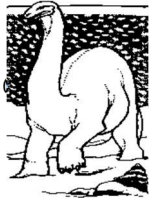

Where did they go?

What ever happened to the dinosaurs? About 65 million years ago, they became extinct. Scientists are not sure, but they think perhaps:

a) A huge star crashed into Earth, making it as hot as an oven. The heat may have killed the plants that dinosaurs ate.

b) Dinosaurs could live only in a warm climate. Over the years, the weather cooled down.

Can you imagine a Brontosaurus trying to curl up in a cave? Dinosaurs ruled the earth for about 140 million years Scientists are still finding their fossils. Who knows what other secrets may still be hidden beneath the earth?

Answer the following question in full sentences.

1. What may have killed the plants?

2. How did the weather change?

3. When did dinosaurs become extinct?

4. What word in the story means the same as "died out"?

5. Why couldn't dinosaurs live in cold weather?

Phonics:

There are ten phonics spelled incorrectly. Can you help to write them correctly?

The childrin are turning rite at the corner of the street. It is sutch a beautiful day that we decided to go do some wale watching.

You must wispir when looking through books at the library. I only toek out free books this time. The one girl popped her beloon and gave everyone a fright. A boy running around bumped his foet against one of the bookcases.

I am very excited to see my friends at skool. We need to keep our distance and stay sayf.

1. _____

6. _____

2. _____

7. _____

3. _____

8. _____

4. _____

9. _____

5. _____

10. _____

Language Structure

Change the following sentences to the past tense.

1. Peter is playing a song on his flute.

2. Michael kicks the ball to his teammate who then scores a goal.

Change the word(s) in brackets to its plural form and rewrite the sentence.

1. The (child is) playing outside on the school playground.

2. Finish the (test) before you pass your (book) to the teacher.

3. The (pig is) playing in the mud while the (farmer is) having coffee and (rusk) inside the house.

Complete the sentences by choosing a preposition in the box below.

in under by over on through

1. Put your lunch box _____ your bag before getting in the car.
2. The cat is hiding _____ the table.
3. Dad kicked the rugby ball _____ the fence.
4. Mom doesn't like it when I sit _____ the kitchen counter.
5. I looked _____ the window and saw my dog sleeping in the garage.
6. Mom was running late, so I had to go to school _____ bus this morning.

Underline the nouns in the following sentences.

1. Tie the rope around the pole before you get off the boat.
2. The dog jumped in the river after he fetched the ball.
3. Please pass me the pan so that we can bake some pancakes.
4. I wrote a letter to my friend and dropped it on the stairs.

Choose between a, an or the to complete the sentences below.

1. I saw ____ goose at ____ zoo when I bought ____ ice-cream at ____ tuck shop.
2. Did you also watch ____ movie about ____ mermaid and ____ prince?
3. Bring ____ letter you wrote to your friend while I was explaining ____ work.
4. I would really like ____ slice of ____ pizza before I go to bed.
5. Did they put up ____ sign before they started painting ____ white lines on ____ road?

Complete the sentences by choosing an adjective in the box below.

bright strong chocolate colorful tall new caramel

1. The _____ player tackled his opponent before he could score a goal.
2. Mother took a picture of the _____ rainbow before it vanished.
3. The cake is covered with _____ and _____ sprinkles.
4. My sister is wearing her _____ sunglasses because the _____ sun is hurting her eyes.

Use the adverbs in the box below to complete the sentences and circle each verb.

Carefully quickly happily secretly quietly

1. The dog _____ jumped over the high fence to catch the cat.
2. _____ floss your teeth before visiting the dentist.
3. The girl _____ wrote a letter to her best friend in class.
4. She _____ whispered the answer to the boy next to her.
5. Dad _____ opened his birthday gift after we gave it to him.

Change the underlined word to the correct pronoun and rewrite the sentence.

1. Sarah is giving Sarah's dog a bath

2. Connor has a friend. Connor and his friend are watching a movie.

3. Remember to buy toothpaste. The toothpaste is nearly finished.

4. The children are playing outside. The children are playing soccer.

5. Please pick up that bottle. That bottle is lying on the floor.
