What is a Listening Comprehension?

Listening Comprehension is the ability to listen to a story and then answering questions about the story.

What to do when you complete a listening comprehension

- ☐ Your teacher will read the story to you.
- ☐ You need to listen and concentrate very carefully
- ☐ After she has read you the story,
she will read the questions to you.
- ☐ Then she will read the story for a last time.

Remember...

Listen, Listen, Listen

- ☐ Listen to the story and form a picture in your head about the story.
- ☐ When your teacher reads the questions try to remember the questions so that you know what to listen for when you teacher reads the story again.
