Monday

Remember to read for three minutes and report back at the beginning of every day.
Mark the exercises done in week 3 – see file: Week 3 Memos. Make sure all work for week 3 has been completed and marked. Revise work.

Worksheet: Adjectives

Last week we studied adjectives. Complete the worksheet by choosing the most suitable adjective in each sentence. (If you cannot print it, you may copy the answers in your classwork book.) You may use a dictionary or Google for the ones you are unsure of.
Then read the sentences twice aloud.

Tuesday

Platinum p.67
Read the notes at the top of page on subject-verb agreement and subjects and objects.
Also study the following notes.
The subject is the person or thing doing the action.
The verb is the action of the sentence.
The object is the person or thing receiving the action.
Subject
The energetic girl threw the yellow ball.
To find the subject:
1. Find the verb
2. Ask who or what + verb
Verb = threw
Who or what threw = the energetic girl

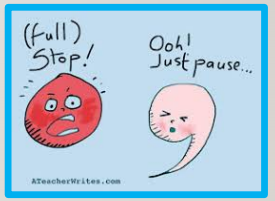
Punctuation is the name for marks used in writing. They are to help understanding and correct reading. For example: . : , ? ! – ‘ “ “

Read the notes on p.68 about commas and then also read the following notes.



A comma has many uses. Some of these are shown below:

To separate things in a list: "cows, horses, pigs, and sheep".

To separate two sentences with a conjunction: "Most birds have separate toes, but ducks' feet are webbed."

To separate parts of a sentence: "Mimi, hungry as she was, was shy to come forward and have a slice of cake."

To indicate a pause in a sentence or question: "Hallie, did you remember to feed the cat?“

Now do no 1a)-e) Write the sentence in your classwork book, adding the necessary commas.

LAERSKOOL MIKRO

Read the passage below aloud, while doing the following actions:

Capital letter – clap your hands once

Full stop – stamp your foot .

Comma – wave your hands ,

Question mark – nod your head ?

Exclamation mark – jump up and sit down !

Morris the Martian was flying around the Solar System one day, when he saw a strange light in front of him.

What is that? he thought to himself. Morris was scared, but he flew a little bit closer so that he could see it better.

"Hello. Is anyone there?" he called, but there was no reply. Suddenly a creature appeared in front of the light.

"BOO!" it shouted. Poor Morris was really scared and he flew off home and hid under his bed.
