

Animals that can harm

In this two-week cycle you will learn and practise these skills:

Listen and speak (1 hour per week)

- Listen to and carry out instructions
- Give instructions
- Classify things
- Practise listening and speaking daily

Read and view (2.5 hours per week)

- Read a procedural text and an information text
- Do a comprehension
- Read independently

Write and present (1 hour per week)

- Write a procedure with support
- Label a mind map

- Record words and meanings in a personal dictionary

Language structures and conventions

(30 minutes formal practice per week)

Spelling and punctuation

- Words with long vowel sounds (bake, bite)

Working with words and sentences

- Adverbs of place (here, there)
- The command form of the verb
- The modals 'can', 'may' for permission
- The modal 'must' for necessity

Vocabulary in context

- Antonyms