

Read the book review about “Danger at the dump”

‘Danger at the dump’ is the story of a girl called Donna. She finds a group of children playing with dangerous things at a rubbish dump. Donna and her friend set out to catch the people who have been leaving medical waste at the dump.

This is an exciting story. It tells us why medical waste is dangerous and should not be left where children can find it. The story is not too long and it has clear pictures. I recommend it.

1. Complete the table about the review.

Title:
Main character:
What the story is about (summarise in one sentence)
What does the story tell us (moral of the story)
Was it recommended or not?

2. Write the following words in alphabetical order:

Aunt, shadow, decide, dangerous, dream, children, rubbish.