1. Add to each main clause and make a complex sentence.
 - a) I'm going to keep practising so that ...
 - b) David learnt how to juggle while ...

2. It is better to not write long complex sentences. Write the sentence below as three short sentences. Add full stops and leave unnecessary words out.

I got hold of the balls and then I started practising and I found that it was difficult because I just kept dropping balls all over the place so I just decided to stop.

Punctuation

3. Punctuate the sentences by inserting the missing full stops, question marks and exclamation marks.

Do not:

- use more than one exclamation mark at the end of a sentence
- use exclamation marks too often – they can be tiring to read
- use exclamation marks in formal writing

- a) Stop shouted the teacher
- b) Oops The ball fell in the glass
- c) How dare you
- d) Oh my goodness I can't believe I'm juggling
