

1. Which sentence has the strongest meaning? Underline the correct answer.

- a. I should get out of the rain.
- b. You must not frighten small children.
- c. You have to obey the law.

2. Make your own sentences with the underlined words:

- a. should: *I should not play in the rain.
- b. must: *I must brush my teeth every day.
- c. have to: *I have to listen to my mom and dad.

3. Match the following words to their correct meaning:

labyrinth	a long sharp knife used for fighting
escape	long, thin thread
sword	a maze; a place with many paths that cross, so it is easy to get lost.
string	to get away from something

4. Spelling: break these words into smaller parts

for example: la/by/rinth

a. minotaur: mi/no/taur

b. fourteen: four/teen

c. revenge: re/ven/ge

d. probably: pro/ba/bly

e. hated: ha/ted

f. Ariadne: a/ri/ad/ne

g. terrible: ter/ri/ble

h. tunnels: tun/nels

i. surprised: sur/prised

5. Find your way out of the labyrinth! Start in the middle and make sure not to cross any lines.

