

- 2 Write down two of your own sentences which each contain a subject and a predicate. Underline the predicate in each of your sentences. (2)
- 3 Think of two examples of nouns which could be used for a dual purpose. Use a dictionary to help you. (2)
- 4 Write a short paragraph about something you feel strongly about. You must use emotive language and your paragraph must be about ten lines. Underline all the emotive words, such as adjectives, which you have used. (7)

Total: 15

Viewing for comprehension

What you know already

A cartoon is a drawn picture of a funny situation. Each picture in a cartoon is placed in a frame. A cartoonist often makes fun of the relationship between two characters. He uses the characters' expressions, their gestures and their physical appearance, such as what they are wearing and what they look like, to make the viewer laugh.

Check myself

Answer Yes or No for each of the following statements.

	Yes	No
I know that a cartoon is a drawn picture of a situation which is funny.
I know about frames in a cartoon.
I know that a cartoonist often makes fun of the relationship between two characters.
I know that a cartoonist uses expressions, gestures and the physical appearance of the characters to make the viewer laugh.

Word bank

A B C

alien	a being from another world
corrupt	evil or immoral
resist	try to prevent or fight against something
invade	enter a country to conquer or occupy it